Condolences

We extend our condolences to Noeleen Arthur on the sad passing of her wonderful father, Peter Farrell RIP, in November. The staff and Board of Management continue to think and pray for Noeleen, her mother, sisters, brother and the extended family and friends. May his kind and gentle soul rest in heavenly peace.

Prayer Service

We began the Advent Season with a Prayer Service led by Mrs McAdam, Mrs Carville and the children on 28th November. We are preparing and waiting for the birth of Jesus. It was a beautiful service and all the children sang and prayed reverently.

St. Vincent de Paul 9th - 18th December

As always, our St. Vincent de Paul boxes are located at the entrance doors for the next 2 weeks. Non-perishable festive foods are much appreciated.

Toy Show Treats

As you may already know.... The Late Late Toy Show takes place on Friday, 6th December at 9.30pm on RTE 1. The Parents' Association and Ms Peoples have organised little treat bags for every child in the school

Carol Service

The First Class children, along with children from Scoil Mhuire Boys N.S. and St. Louis Girls' N.S. will come together to sing carols on Wednesday, 18th December at 7.00pm in St. Macartan's Cathedral.

We ask the boys and girls to wear their school uniforms and arrive at the cathedral at 6.40pm.

When the Carol Service ends, please come up to the altar to collect your child from the teachers, as it will be very busy.

Morning Drop Off

We have noticed a lot of children arrive very early in the morning. During these cold mornings please wait until closer to 8.50am to arrive.

Bus Children (Morning Drop Off)

The top gate is used from 8.50 - 8.55am to allow children arriving by bus enter through Door 4. Please do not 'push by' the children or staff.
